

Quincy Humane Society Donor Privacy Policy

The personal, contact information that you share with the Quincy Humane Society is always treated with respect for your privacy. The Quincy Humane Society does not sell, lease, rent, or give donor information to any outside party. We use this information only to inform you of opportunities to participate in or support the mission and work of the Quincy Humane Society. The Quincy Humane Society does keep a record of each donor's giving history. Contact information does not appear on any public donor list.

You may request at any time that your name or contact information be withheld or that you may be removed from our files or that we mark your files do not mail. To do this, simply contact the Quincy Humane Society at 217-223-8786.